

In this lab, I read the data from csv file vehicles.csv and created the histograms and scatterplots for "current fleet" and "proposed fleet". After that, I calculated the standard deviations of both samples. The standard deviations of both samples are equal.